Gen. S. A. Lee

Dear Sir.

I respectfully state that I have tried to learn under Prof. Jayne but it seems impossible for me to accomplish any thing. I think that I have studied as hard as any boy in the Freshman Class but still I get lower marks than any of them. Hoping that this will be sufficient. I remain Very Respectfully

Gen S. Lee
President

I think it unnecessary to make any remark on this excuse of McCuthren. His idleness was notorious, and caused his father to recall him home.

A. H. Jayne,
Prof. of Math.

Wm. with much & with
S. J. I think I can do by.
